SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

HISTORIC CONFESSION OF A GUN-MOLL

We were sweet little kids--but having been proved inadequately suited for our expanding environment, and ignorant of the Law, we were sentenced to twelve years of hard labor.

The reformatory provided the first eight years of confinement. Here we learned primary discipline (how to elude the detection of teachers in our many misdeemeanors; to present the air of dignity and a studious countenance while hatching our evil plots.) They then pronounced us advanced beyond the elementary bounds of their teaching and marched us to the pen for the remaining four years.

Little occurred the first year. A few occupied themselves with sports. The second year we gave evidence of our dramatic talent by presenting a play, "The Custer's Last Stand." The third year we were exhilarated by our prominence on the school scene, being second only to the graduating class. We presented another play with progressed performance. We took a trip to Washington with the Seniors. Then we climaxed the year with the Junior-Senior Banquet. Finally we were the select in jailbirds, the Seniors. We, being peerless in drama, gave a rousing presentation of "Mystery, Murder, and Mayhem." Many of us were now especially experienced in athletics, and gave splendid performances on the court and diamond.

But we have now become the most versatile of hoodlums--capable of escaping punishment for our criminal acts, of arousing chaos at any given place, and of transferring our knowledge to the inexperienced underclassmen. So with the air of intelligence we stride into the world of the future--students no longer--but mature hoods and janes of the underworld!

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

I as a gypsy can tell you the things that are to come for you, Barbara, and your classmates for the next few years.

As I look into the spans of time I see the graduating class of '57 in the year of '67. Quite a few changes have taken place in the past ten years. Here, let me show you in my crystal ball.

Do you see this? That young man in your classmate, Luther Church. He is playing with his yacht on Snyder's Lake. Filthy Rich. Ann Reid is in Miami, Florida. It seems that she caught a guy from the University of Miami. Coy Miller went places with his title of "Best All Around"--to an altar in a church in Boone. Sharon Sudderth is also going places; she's a traveling car thief; the worry has turned her hair a chalky gray now. Ruth Holder is living in Miami too. She has a special interest down there, a home made race car. Bonnie Payne also held the title of "Best All Around"; now all you see all around Bonnie is "Baby Bonnies." Yes, Barbara here you are. Your missionary work is taking you places,--Africa, South America, and the like. It seems the mail service from N.C. is real good. Marilyn Bolick has the Super Duper Drug Store now where she specializes in slurpy banana splits; they always did fascinate her. Deloris Storie is still bouncing,--from one man to another, that is. Kate Holder is in one of the larger hospitals in New York; she really knows her nursing. Your friend Allen Triplett is a great scientist; he took up Einstein's practice. At last he has something to feel important about. Tommy Cannon is married to a beautiful young thing and is now in the big restaurant business. Mrs. Virginia Greene has been slinging diapers for a long time now. The old man unpins them and she pins. Dorothy Lentz is now married to a big executive from somewhere in New York. Dot has an up-to-date gossip column in one of the local newspapers. Dennis Ruppert is teaching a course in letter writing. I wonder what gave him the idea. James Wright is married now and has several little boys who are working with their Dad on the theory that the world is flat. Rhett Ashley is still working on Commercial Arts and does psychiatric work for a hobby. Bob Coffey showed me a picture of his family the other day and, boy, those kids are cute. James Vannoy is still camera shy and stays well behind them; he's a photographer these days. And last is Cornelia Gryder, still trying to avoid the opposite sex. It's just four divorces thus far for her.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of 1957, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, in manner and form following hereby revoking any will, or wills, heretofore made by us.

To Mr. Storie and Faculty, our thanks to you for the many times you have advised and guided us.

I, Virginia Greene, do hereby will my ability to play basketball for three years and then quit, to anyone who is crazy enough to quit the fourth year.

I, Marilyn Bolick, do hereby will my glasses to those who have lost the way.

I, Rhett Ashley, do hereby will by bald head as a pretentious sign of maturity for those little ones who will fill our shoes.

I, Deloris Storie, do hereby will my giggle to Gail Miller with the suggestion that, for best results, it be used only during classes.

I, Dennis Ruppert, do hereby will my letters, "tied with blue" complete with asbestos cover, to R. C. Shores.

I, Sharon Sudderth, do hereby will my "21" to anyone who knows what it means.

I, Cornelia Gryder do hereby will my ability to stay away from the opposite sex to Sarah Keller.

I, Kate Holder, do hereby will my ability to get my dates mixed up to anyone who is lucky enough to have more than one date at a time.

I, James Wright, do hereby will my ability to pass English and play basketball to Vern Coffey.

I, Allen Triplett, do hereby will my ability to win baseball games to R. C. Shores.

I, Ann Reid, do hereby will my ability to make All Tournament to Gail Dula.

I, Dorothy Lentz, do hereby will a boy whose name begins with a "J" to any girl who can catch him.

I, Ruth Holder, do hereby will all the headaches and keeping late hours preparing an annual to Mary Keller.

I, Coy Miller, do hereby will my ability to drag race to R. C. Shores.

I, Luther Church, do hereby will my ability to get the title "Neatest" to Trask Buxton.

I, Barbara Triplett, do hereby will my inability to get to the home games on time to Pat Coffey because I certainly need to get rid of it.

I, Bonnie Jean Payne, do hereby will my title "Best All Around" to Shirley Henson.

I, Robert Coffey, do hereby will my ability to finish high school to my son Ricky Coffey who will probably finish before I do.

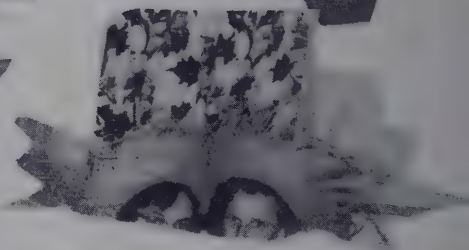

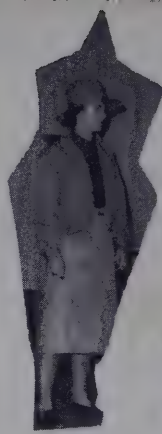

I, Tommy Cannon, do hereby will my ability to stay out of school to Vaughn Hartley.

Any person that takes away, or adds, anything to this document shall be persecuted to the limit of the highest court.

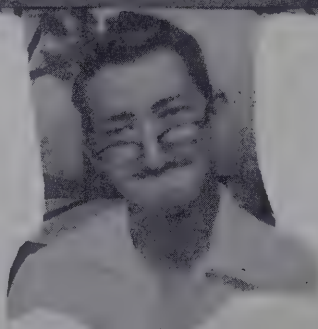

Hereunto have I set my hand and seal.
